Donor-Advised Fund Tools for Donors

If you have a Donor Advised Fund (DAF), we would be grateful if you recommend donating to Danville-Boyle County Humane Society, Danville, KY.

If you do not already have a DAF, you can establish one at many financial institutions. We recommend starting at your local community foundation or the institution where you already have a bank, brokerage, or retirement account. Once you've established your DAF, all the information you need to donate is listed below.
